When Nanette and Edward are left alone in their crumbling seaside home, they decide to cook up a delicious pirate stew using ingredients found in their attic.

But their pirate stew turns out to be more than they bargained for, as it summons a group of boisterous pirates led by the infamous Captain Cutlass.

Together, they set sail on the high seas, encountering monstrous creatures, battling enemy ships, and searching for long-lost treasures.

Along the way, Nanette and Edward learn the true meaning of friendship, adventure, and the power of imagination.
