

Going to Seed: A Counterculture Memoir

In the annals of counterculture literature, few memoirs stand as tall as Going to Seed, a brutally honest and deeply personal account of one woman's journey through the radical subculture of the 1960s and 70s.

Author Mardi Stanford chronicles her transformative experiences as a young woman drawn into the heart of the counterculture. From the psychedelic-fueled Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco to the sprawling communes of Northern California, she immersed herself in a world of free love, communal living, and mind-altering substances.
