In the quaint coastal town of Haven Point, where the salty tang of the ocean breeze filled the air, the Three Year Swim Club was born. Three young swimmers, united by their shared love of the water and unwavering determination, embarked on a journey that would forever intertwine their lives.

Meet Lily, the fearless leader with a heart of gold. As the oldest of the trio, she possesses a quiet strength and unwavering loyalty that guides her friends through life's challenges. Emily, the imaginative and free-spirited artist, brings a touch of magic to their adventures. And Jack, the youngest and most mischievous of the group, adds a spark of laughter and unwavering optimism to their bond.

Summer after summer, the trio would gather at the town's secluded swimming hole, aptly named "The Pool," for their daily swim. The water became their sanctuary, a place where they could escape the worries of childhood and forge an unbreakable connection.

As they grew older, the challenges of adolescence tested their friendship's limits. Lily struggled with self-doubt, Emily wrestled with her artistic aspirations, and Jack faced the complexities of growing up as a young boy. But through it all, their bond remained unbreakable, a beacon of support and encouragement.

The Three Year Swim Club faced its greatest trial when tragedy struck their beloved town. A devastating storm threatened to wash away their cherished memories and shatter the foundation of their friendship. In the aftermath, they had to confront their own mortality and find a way to heal together.
